

Focus on your mission and leave the bookkeeping to us.

We're church accounting experts and we're here to help.

Aplos specializes in bookkeeping for churches

Churches face unique challenges, and that is why it helps to have an expert bookkeeper on your team.

We help thousands of organizations each month with their accounting because we know exactly what it takes to keep a church's books organized, balanced, and up-to-date.

Get set up correctly:

Let us build a sustainable accounting system for your church, from a chart of accounts to data migration.

More accurate records:

Our accounting services experts make sure everything is entered and accounted for, while our accounting manager reviews all of your financial reports so you always have sound financial advice.

Save time:

We handle the paperwork that slows you down, so you have time to focus on what you do best.
